Using the building blocks of the way our brain receives and translates information, combined with an understanding of basic energetics and human dynamics, you will discover a safe way to create and heal from past traumas, old beliefs and old emotions. Learn how energy works in this third dimensional world.

Stop creating by default - become a conscious creator of your own life

During this Course, you will be provided with the very latest of information on the subtle shifts of consciousness and receive all of the knowledge of Ken and Nancy's experiences helping millions of individuals around the planet. Nothing will be withheld. Ken will share his new awareness of Energy Transference and Compassionate Healing. Rev.
